Associate Membership in MADA is an investment in your business and your future. Membership entitles you to receive MADA's periodic publication of its Headline News and Legislative Report giving you access to exclusive communications between MADA and its member dealers.

As an Associate Member, you are also invited to attend and participate in MADA's meetings including annual convention. Each year, your business listing will also be included in the Association's annual membership directory and your listing will appear on our website. A check for one year's annual membership dues must accompany this application.
